DEATHS.

MITCHELL.

After a long and lingering illness from a complication of diseases Mrs. Bettie Neely Mitchell, wife of Mr. Wallace W. Mitchell, Cashier of the Farmers and Traders Bank, and member of the clothing firm of Mitchell & Blakemore, died at her home on East Eighth street at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Mitchell had been an invalid for more than two years. She had been under treatment in Cincinnati, Paris and Louisville hospitals at various times, but the disease had gained such a hold upon her system that medical science could afford nothing more than a temporary relief.

Mrs. Mitchell was a daughter of the late Joseph and Jane Ranson Neely, and was born in 1861 in the old home on Second street, where she spent her girlhood days. Besides her husband, she is survived by one sister, Mrs. John A. Lyle, of Paris, and one brother, Mr. Sam Neely, of Missouri. A sister, Mrs. Wm. Blakemore, preceded her to the grave a short time ago.

The funeral was held at the family residence, on East Eighth street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Frank J. Clark, of Danville, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church in Paris. The interment followed on the family lot in the Paris Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were, T. Hart Talbott, Wm. G. Talbott, J. Harry Clay, J. Frank Clay, Newton Mitchell, W. H. Harris and Denis Dundon.

WILLS.

Mr. Edward Wills, aged forty-eight, died suddenly at his boarding house in Winchester, Monday night. He was employed at weighman at the Scobee Tobacco Warehouse, in Winchester, and was one of the best-known tobacco men in the State. He is survived by his father, Mr. W. B. Wills, and two brothers, Mr. Curtis Wills, of Bourbon county, and Mr. Ward Wills, of Winchester. Owing to the suspicious circumstances of Mr. Wills' death the Coroner of Clark county decided to have an analysis made of the contents of Mr. Wills' stomach, which is in progress by State chemists. For this reason the funeral has not been held.

CMITH.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, widow of the late Mr. W. W. Smith, died at her home in Cynthiana yesterday at one o'clock, after a long illness. Mrs. Smith, familiarly known as "Aunt Liz" to hundreds, was in her ninetieth year. She was twice married, her first husband being the late Mr. Noah Keller. She was for years a familiar figure in the life of Cynthiana, where she was associated with her husband in the management of the Smith Hotel, now the Commercial Hotel. She had no survivors. The funeral will take place in Cynthiana to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

CHAPPELL.

The funeral of Dorcas Chappell, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chappell, who died at the family home on South High Street, Tuesday, was held at the residence Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, with services conducted by Rev. W. E. Ellis, pastor of the Paris Christian church.

The remains were taken to Mason county yesterday morning and interred on the family lot in the German-town Cemetery.

HILL—McCLURE.

The marriage of Lieut. James Nicholas Winn McClure, U. S. A., of Paris, Ky., and Miss Lemira Gillett Hill, of Lincoln, Ill., and Washington, D. C., was quietly solemnized at the Washington home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Kate Gillett Hill, Saturday. The marriage was witnessed by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends.

The bride is quite prominent socially, and is a daughter of Mrs. Kate Gillett Hill and the late Major James E. Hill, the latter a former Mayor of Lincoln, Ill., and major of volunteers in the Spanish-American war, seeing service in the Philippine Islands. The bride's mother is a sister of Mrs. Richard J. Oglesby, widow of the late Gen. Richard J. Oglesby, former Governor of Illinois and a former United States Senator from Illinois.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

Mr. Charlton Clay sold to Mr. Jonas Weil, of Lexington, Wednesday, ninety-one head of finished beef cattle for 12 1/2 c a pound. The cattle, which averaged about 1,350 pounds, were shipped yesterday to the Eastern markets for the Christmas trade.

At Mt. Sterling court day Wm. Kissick, of near Paris, purchased of Thos. DeFord a bunch of 1,100-lb. steers for 10 1/2 c per pound; Bert McClintock, of Millersburg, bought several mules at $140 to $225 per head, and Caywood, Smith & McClintock, of Paris, purchased several at an average price of $125 per head.

Our idea is, however, that when the war is over the men of Germany will want peace, not bigamy.

THE WEATHER.

The weather man, evidently somewhat ashamed of the way he has treated the people, started a warm wave on the road Wednesday, resulting in higher temperature and a general thaw. The fleecy covering of snow that has mantled the earth for over a week is in the language of Mashimuri Togo, "fastly disappearing groundward." Streams of melting snow from thawing roofs and downspouts make the walking on the pavements decidedly unpleasant.

The melting snow will do a great deal of good to the growing wheat, carrying down into the soil the chemical elements needed for the young growth.

The higher temperature has also worked a great relief to the consumers of natural gas and other forms of fuel. The abnormal demand has now given way to a more equitable one, so that there is now plenty of gas for all purposes. Taken all around the change from the zero weather of the past week is a very agreeable one.
